

Hope Ignores Doctor's Orders, Continues Tour

Refuses To Cut Schedule

TORREJON, Spain — (UP) — Bob Hope, ignoring doctor's orders to "take it easy," pushed ahead today with a grueling Christmas tour of U.S. bases overseas.

Hope was hospitalized briefly at the U. S. Air Force's Moron Field after his arrival in Spain Sunday, following an attack of dizziness apparently brought on by high blood pressure and exhaustion. He was up and about again, however, in time to play a scheduled show for the troops.

HE REFUSED to cut down the 12-day, 10-show schedule of his tour of bases in the Azores, Morocco, Spain, Italy, Germany and Iceland.

"The doc said I wasn't getting enough sleep," Hope said. "We got only a few hours rest before leaving New Jersey, and nothing at the Azores. Then I played a benefit golf match when I should have been in bed and, man, it's been murder."

"BUT I LOVE it. We play in hangers and have to scream our lungs out, we get rained on sometimes, but I love it. The service people are great audiences, and they really appreciate our coming."

Hope had only eight hours of broken sleep in the first 72 hours of his tour. He was 45 minutes late to his first show in Spain because of his brief stay in hospital, but he laughed it off.

"THE DOC COUNTED my corpuses and figured I'd been hoarding them," he said. "He made me rest, and I was okay after a while."

However, bad weather did what the doctors could not do to Hope — it forced him to cancel a planned show for 2,000 servicemen and dependents at the Zaragoza Air Base today. One of two planes carrying part of the Hope troupe took off from here, but was unable to land at Zaragoza and returned. Hope's plane did not even take off from Torrejon. The group goes on to Naples from here.

Atlas Picks Up Corona 'Voice' For Rebroadcast

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The only voice besides President Eisenhower's to be sent into space and rebroadcast to earth is that of Sam Fandler, engineer in charge of a tracking station at Corona, Calif.

Fandler made voice transmissions to the Air Force's Atlas satellite last Saturday from the Prado Dam Basin station of the Army Signal Corps.

On the 27th pass of the satellite over Lower California, Fandler told the Atlas:

"This is the USARL United States Army Research and Development Laboratory Tracking Station at Prado Dam Basin, Corona, Calif., transmitting to the satellite."

He then sent Eisenhower's Christmas greeting message.

On the 28th orbit, Fandler said "this is the Prado Dam U. S. Army Signal Research and Development Laboratory Tracking Station at Corona, Calif. We are retransmitting the President's message which was received at this station from the Atlas on Dec. 19, 1958."

German Shepherd Has Twelve Pups

It's Christmastime in most of Palm Springs but it looks more like Mother's Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bow Herbert, at 976 Avenida Palos Verdes.

A dozen German Shepherd pups born over a 22-hour span to the Herberts' pedigree "Mädchen," have literally taken over the house and Mrs. Herbert is relishing her new role.

"I'M PRACTICALLY a grandmother," Nancy sighed yesterday. It started Thursday night—the Herberts knew the dog was ready—but they didn't anticipate the deluge of puppies.

"She just kept on having them," said Mrs. Herbert. Rocky of Hillsdale, the pedigree pop of the brood, hasn't heard about his offspring yet, but he will when the Herberts take the "pick of the litter" to Mr. and Mrs.

Goldfine, Aide Sentenced to Prison Today

Industrialist Given 3 Months, Secretary 10 Days

BOSTON (UP)—Bernard Goldfine and his blonde secretary were sentenced to federal prison today for criminal contempt of court. Goldfine was sentenced to three months and Miss Mildred Paperman to 10 days.

Both sentences were deferred until Jan. 7 to allow the defendants to be home for the holidays. The millionaire industrialist was freed in personal recognizance bond of $1,000 and his secretary on personal recognizance.

THE DELAY ALSO was designed to give both of them an opportunity to appeal the conviction. The sentence was imposed by Federal Judge Charles E. Wyzanski who immediately began a hearing on another contempt charge.

Goldfine and Miss Paperman were sentenced for refusing to turn business records of five textile mills over to the Internal Revenue Service investigators prior to Dec. 8 under Wyzanski's order Dec. 5.

BEFORE THEY were sentenced, Goldfine said he was "very sorry for what happened. I hope you will take that into consideration." Miss Paperman, who broke down and wept uncontrollably after hearing sentence passed, had pleaded with the judge. "I am terribly sorry. It was not my intention. The mistake was one of judgment and not contempt of this court."

JUDGE WYZANSKI, who had convicted the pair last week after a two-day trial, said he would have sentenced Goldfine to a longer term but this would have made him eligible for executive clemency.

The judge said that to put the case in the hands of the chief executive would be to subject Goldfine to possible "political discrimination." He did not mention the President by name or title.

NATO to Get More German Forces in '59

Two Divisions, 12 Airwings Are Promised

PARIS (UP) — West Germany expects to assign two more divisions to NATO by the end of next year and to "activate" a total of 12 airwings by then, NATO sources reported today.

Germany has assigned seven divisions to the western defense shield. But their combat readiness is limited.

The West German Army is to reach its full peacetime strength by 1961 when it will be composed of three army corps totalling 12 divisions.

PLANS FOR THE military set up were reported as follows:

The total strength of the West German Army presently approximates 175,000 men. Its goal is set at some 350,000 by 1961.

It is supported by an air force which by the end of 1959 is to have 12 wings, including five fighter-bomber wings, two reconnaissance wings, three air defense wings and two transport wings.

THE FOURTH AIR force wing of jet fighter-bombers was activated last week, bringing West Germany's air force to a total presently of nine squadrons each equipped with 25 American made F84F Thunderstreak planes.

The tactical air force is to have five missions: Cooperation with ground forces, air defense, tactical bombardment, reconnaissance and military transport assignments.

The air force is to activate one Nike anti-aircraft battalion during the coming year.

BY THE END OF next year the West German Navy is to have three destroyers, five or six minesweeping squadrons, four motor torpedo boat squadrons, one escort squadron, one squadron of landing craft and two naval air groups. Later submarines are to be added, some 12 and several small anti-submarine submarines.

In addition, a territorial defense system is being built up of some 25,000 professional soldiers, to look after maintenance and repair of communication lines, installation of a signals network and traffic control.

Mild Weather Recorded as Winter Starts

United Press International
Relatively mild weather spread across the nation interior today to greet the first day of winter.

The moderate readings were in sharp contrast to the record late fall cold wave which Sunday sent readings to the freezing mark as far south as Louisiana as a parting shot.

WINTER OFFICIALLY arrived at 12:30 a. m. (p.s.t.), and temperatures were appropriately frigid in the East.

However, in the interior, overnight readings ranged in the 30's and 40's from Kansas and Missouri southward into Texas and Louisiana.

Major Civil Rights Battle Expected in New Congress

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Statements from northern and southern senators made clear today that a major civil rights battle is shaping for the new Congress.

The northerners predicted the administration would call for more civil rights legislation and advocated federal action to help southerners ease racial tensions.

AT THE SAME time, the southerners predicted any attempt to curb the Senate filibuster rule would have little chance of success and advocated voluntary relocation of southern Negroes to northern states.

Here was what the senators said in statements and radio and TV interviews Sunday:

—SEN. PAUL DOUGLAS (Ill.) called for federal action to free the South's "very able men for constructive services" in easing racial problems. He specifically mentioned Russell Long (D-La.) and Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.).

—SEN. CLIFFORD CASE (R.N.J.) said he expected the administration to call for extension of the life of the Civil Rights Commission and strengthening of the Justice Department's power to act in civil rights violation cases. He said the administration also might call for an anti bombing bill.

—SEN. JAMES O. EASTLAND (D-Miss.) predicted efforts to curb the Senate filibuster rule — Traditional weapon used against civil rights bills — would meet with little success. He said the filibuster has never defeated one bill beneficial to the people.

A majority of 16 new senators also urged in copyrighted interviews in U. S. News and World Report that the Senate curb its filibuster rules. Their statements added new pressure for an all-out fight over the filibuster on the opening of the new Congress next month.

Former New York Gov. Tom Dewey was reported "resting comfortably" at Desert Hospital today for treatment of influenza. A hospital spokesman said the one-time Republican presidential candidate possibly would be released today or Tuesday.

Dewey was stricken while visiting at the home of drug company executive Justin Dart in Palm Desert. He was admitted to the hospital Sunday with what at first was believed to be pneumonia.

Ike to Finish Work on Budget Figures Today

WASHINGTON — (UP) — President Eisenhower may put finishing touches today on the budget he will submit to the new Congress next month and will follow it up with an unusual White House statement.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said there was a "good chance" that the final budget figures for the 1960 fiscal year would be "locked up" by the President and his staff during the day, although the chief executive will work on his budget message to Congress through the Christmas holidays.

The President will not hold a news conference this week because of work on the series of messages he is preparing to submit to the Democratic-controlled Congress next month.

Eisenhower plans to leave for his farm at Gettysburg, Pa., some time Friday, Dec. 26, and remain there through Jan. 1, working on his budget message, the State of the Union Message and some portion of his report to the new Congress on the state of the national economy.

—SEN. JAMES O. EASTLAND (D-Miss.) predicted efforts to curb the Senate filibuster rule — Traditional weapon used against civil rights bills — would meet with little success. He said the filibuster has never defeated one bill beneficial to the people.

Red Editorial Say Protest 'Meaningless'

Claims NATO Must Disappear From Germany

BERLIN (UP)—The Communists today rejected a U. S. memorandum denying Russia's right to turn over control of West Berlin's lifelines to the local Reds.

A front-page editorial in the Communist organ Neues Deutschland said the memorandum, expressing America's determination to maintain troops in West Berlin, is "nonsense."

THE 6,500-WORD U. S. memorandum, published Saturday night, recalled the obligations the Russians have assumed since World War II in a series of four-power agreements which it said they cannot arbitrarily cancel.

It recalled that at the end of the war U. S. troops held sizeable portions of Mecklenburg, Thuringia and Saxony, all now part of the Soviet Zone, and said America would have as much right to demand return of those territories as Russia has to try to force the West out of Berlin.

NEUES DEUTSCHLAND said the U. S. protest is meaningless because America no longer has the power to enforce it.

"NATO (the Atlantic Pact) must disappear from Germany..." the Red editorial said. "Germany belongs to the Germans..."

"The Soviet government has declared that it will transfer its functions in Berlin to the Red German Democratic Republic. The GDR has approved this plan. It will be carried out."

Mother-in-Law Denies Link With Slaying

VENTURA, Calif. (UP) — Police said today Mrs. Olga Duncan may have been buried alive by two men allegedly hired by the husband's mother, but the mother denied any connection with the bizarre "for hire" slaying.

"I'm shocked that anyone would confess to such a brutal slaying," Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Duncan, 54, was quoted by authorities from her Ventura County jail cell.

Gambling Tables Cross Border

According to the newspaper, the tables were bound for the Club de las Americas in Tijuana.

Desert Residents Prove Generous

That family that needed "a couple of beds for the kids" is going to get not only beds, but a real desert Christmas as well.

Bill Alcorn, who called attention to the family's need, said yesterday that the response to the plea—published in The Desert Sun—was overwhelming.

"IT'S ONE OF the most remarkable displays of Christmas spirit I've ever seen," he said. "The entire desert seemed to respond."

Desert citizens from Palm Desert and Indian Wells to North Palm Springs and Thousand Palms came through with rugs, clothing, shoes, furniture—all in addition to the beds initially requested.

"ONE MAN SENT $15 in cash with a letter — anonymous—telling us to 'buy something for the kids with it,'" Alcorn said.

Overflow will go to other needy families in the desert area, Alcorn said. For contributions or for information in needy families, he may be reached at FA 5-6500.

Saks Fifth Avenue Store at Halfway Mark

Framing Is Now Finished

Construction on the Saks Fifth Avenue store here has passed the half-way mark and completion of the building has been set for early 1959, it was announced by owners Arthur Gilbert and Edward Rothschild, Beverly Hills Industrial and commercial developers.

Framing of the structure has been completed and interior lathing and plastering is under way. At the same time the unique exterior stonework of red volcanic rock and sparkling oyster white precast concrete tile is being applied to the building.

DESIGNED BY Welton Becket and Associates, the new Saks Fifth Avenue store is located on the northeast corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Ramon Road. It has frontages of 117 feet on Palm Canyon Drive, 300 feet on Ramon Road, and 117 feet on Indian Avenue.

A single story building, Saks will emphasize the desert styling so unique to Palm Springs. Indian touches and desert landscaping will be evident in the completed building.

A LARGE AREA has been devoted to parking just north of the building. Four driveways will lead to a parking area that will handle some 200 autos at one time.

The new Palm Springs store will be under the supervision of Saks Fifth Avenue's Beverly Hills unit, largest of the Saks chain. Jack Matthes, general manager of the Beverly Hills fashion center, will be responsible for the Palm Springs unit.

Gilbert and Rothschild plan building and leasing stores on the adjacent land for compatible tenants. Leasing for these stores is handled by Coldwell Banker and Company.

Industry sources expect to sell 600 million pairs of shoes in the U.S. in 1959, five per cent over this year's anticipated sales.

There are three major American ballet companies now in existence.

Smog Measuring Device Planned

MIRA LOMA — Three smog measuring devices owned by the State Department of Public Health and manned by Riverside County Air Pollution Control District personnel will go into operation probably by Jan. 1 — at Mira Loma, the APCD announced yesterday.

The devices, an oxidant concentration recorder, an oxides of nitrogen recorder and an infra-red carbon monoxide analyzer, are expected to show the amount of contaminants in the air as well as drift direction of the smog.

A one-year period of testing is scheduled but if the measuring instruments prove as valuable in the Mira Loma area as they are expected to be, they may be continued there.

Beauty of Bathing

CHICAGO (UPI) — More goes into a bathtub nowadays than a bath and a cake of soap.

The Baking Soda Institute said a survey showed popcorn, peanuts and candy contribute to the happiness of Americans while they're soaking in the suds.

The report said 12 per cent of the nation's smokers enjoy a cigarette in the tub. Two out of five persons listen to music ranging from operatic arias to rock 'n' roll as they bathe.

Nearly a quarter of all bathers read in the tub and one out of 18 women manicure their nails.

Report on Dog Problem to Be Given to Board

The Palo Verde Valley Chamber of Commerce has urged the Board of Supervisors to take steps toward better control of dogs in the county.

They said they are opposed to increasing the tax burden but favor a county-wide licensing requirement whereby the program might be self-sustaining and the end result of benefit to the public's health and to the people who have an interest in livestock.

Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen to whom the supervisors referred the C of C request, said he has already prepared a preliminary report on the dog problem and will have a complete report ready for presentation to the board Dec. 29.

A request to the board Nov. 24 by the Animal Protective League of Palm Springs for assistance in its plan for handling, sheltering and picking up stray dogs and cats in the Coachella Valley was referred at that time to Andersen for consideration. He has indicated that he believes the licensing of dogs would have considerable merit.

Edith Eddy Ward won an alpaca sweater (donated by Hale's Men's store) for 13 new chamber members, and John Moon, was also awarded an alpaca sweater for collecting $650 cash — the top amount raised by an individual salesman.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am so ashamed of myself I could just die. I just sent my 10-year-old daughter to school without breakfast because she was slow getting dressed. I told her I didn't care if she never came back. It all started when she didn't put her clothes out and couldn't find anything in the morning and was almost late for school. I acted like a maniac, screaming and banging things. I said horrible things to her and pushed her out the door. When she left I sat down and cried like a baby. I am miserable. I've done this before and promised myself I wouldn't do it again, but here I am! Are there other mothers who act like that? What can I do to help myself, Abby?

SAD MOTHER
DEAR SAD: If it is any comfort to you, you are not alone. I suggest you seek professional help. A good doctor could teach you how to relax, control your temper and live agreeably with your family.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married for 16 years if you can call this a marriage. He is a husband six days a week but on Saturdays he is not married at all. He goes off early in the morning with his shaving kit and I don't see him until church time Sunday morning. He puts 200 miles on his car and who knows where he went? He says marriage is a JOB and everybody gets one day off a week from his job and Saturday is his day off from his marriage. Am I crazy or is he?

SIX DAY WIFE
DEAR SIX: Marriage is a seven-day-a-week job and any man who can talk his wife out of a "day off" from his marriage could sell sand to the Arabs.

DEAR ABBY: When my husband retired six years ago our three married daughters urged us to move to the city where they live. We have never been invited to any of their homes when they've had guests for cocktails, dinners or an evening. We evidently don't "fit in" with their friends. We are very much in demand however as "sitters" but it never occurs to them to invite us to their home as "guests." This situation has hurt us both badly.

DO NOT FIT
DEAR DO: If you don't "fit"—don't "sit."

DEAR ABBY: You hear from many men whose wives do not understand them, but I am one man who doesn't understand his wife. She attended summer school last year and became acquainted with a foreign student. She has invited him to make our home his home away from home, and I think things have gone too far. He calls my wife "Honey" and "Dear" and this is all covered up with a mother-son relationship. She is old enough to be his mother. I am not suggesting that anything out of line has taken place, but I want to be sure it doesn't. Should I bar him from our home? We've been wed 23 years.

HUSBAND
DEAR HUSBAND: Your wife may be old enough to be his mother, but this lad is old enough to get along WITHOUT a mother.

Twenty Eight Palm Springs Debs Presented and Pinned at First Deb Ball

Four Debs for Float Announced

Each Deb was the Queen of the Ball Friday night, when 28 Palm Springs Debs were presented and received their pins at the first Deb Ball held in the beautiful dining room at Desert Inn. Two of the original 30 were unable to be present.

Chamber of Commerce secretary Jimmy Cooper and his wife headed the receiving line, standing in front of the tall tree, where rainbow-colored Christmas tree lights flickered on and off under a mantle of white spun glass. Assisting in the line were the six patronesses and their escorts, Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Austin, Mrs. Payne Jennings and Bill Webb, Mrs. Georgina Poston and Jimmy Morton, Mrs. Waller McGee and Ed Dillon, and the Deb's honorary advisor Hildy Crawford and her husband Bill Crawford.

Sparkling, glitter-sprinkled letters spelled out "Palm Springs Debs" above the bandstand where Pat Barbara and his orchestra played for the dancing, from 9 o'clock to midnight, and a huge replica of the Deb pin hung on the canopy overhead.

The Debs were lovely in their bouffant gowns, all in white or pastel colors, with most of their dates in white dinner jackets. A Christmas tree dance, where two miniature trees kept changing hands was a special on the dance program.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation and pinning which followed a Father-Daughter dance. Ball Chairman Mrs. Arthur Coffey welcomed the Debs and their escorts and parents, and introduced their honorary advisor Hildy Crawford, who presented Mayor Frank Bogert. It was his Honor who had the privilege of presenting the Debs. Each was escorted forward by her father or sponsor, introduced, and received her pin. The final scene, with the double line of girls and their fathers on each side of the dance floor, was a striking picture.

The Debs presented were: Linda Wester, Judee Canby, Pam Raphael, Wendi Hammond, Linda Thomas, Sandra Babcock, Carla Black, Linda Boyle, Bobby Dabbs, Diane DeWitt, Rollin Levin, Me-

Tips on Turkeys

EAST LANSING, Michigan — (UPI)—How big a turkey to buy? Here is what home economics extension specialists at Michigan State University advise.

If you need just four servings, then buy a 4-pound turkey. If you want 10 servings, get an 8-pound bird; for 20 servings, a 12-pound one. A 20 pound turkey will provide about 40 servings. As birds get larger, each pound yields more servings.

MAKING PLANS FOR the March of Dimes campaign and the benefit dance and style show that will be held at the Racquet Club on the evening of January 16, are, from left, Palm Springs March of Dimes chairman Charles Farrell, Gus Kettman (standing), Mrs. Sidney O. MARIE JAMBRETZ, Palm Springs High School coed receives an electric fry pan as the first prize for baking the best pie in Cal-electric's district Cherry Baking contest finals in Rialto. Cal-electric Sales Agent John McNeese made the presentation.

Palm Springs Girl Is Winner in Cherry Pie Baking Contest

Marie Jambretz, 15, Palm Springs High School student, emerged the winner for Riverside County in California Electric Power Company's annual district Cherry Pie Baking Contest. She will represent Cal-electric in the State Bake-off to be held at the Van Nuys office of the Department of Water and Power January 16, 1959. The winner of the State contest will represent California in the National Contest to be held in Chicago in February. Miss Jambretz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Jambretz of Cathedral City. She was the winner of the local contest in Palm Springs which qualified her for the district bake-off which she won over six finalists from other local contests sponsored by Cal-electric in its service area.

The bake-off was held in the Orange Bowl in Rialto. Judges for the finals were Mrs. Elizabeth Rauch, home economist of Banning; Mrs. Hazel Cox, former school cafeteria manager of Redlands; and Mrs. Pearl Pettis, home economist from Victorville. The contest was arranged by Cal-electric's Home Service Supervisor, Mrs. Marjorie Helm, assisted by the Cal-electric home economists for the local service areas, Mrs. Gail Wiest, Mrs. Frances La Rue, Mrs. Lois Jacobsen, Miss Jackie Holyoke, Mrs. Faye Ullom and Mrs. Eileen Wilks.

Mushroom Stuffing
NEW YORK UP — The American Mushroom Institute suggest mushroom stuffing for turkey or chicken.

Mix 2 cups stale bread cubes (4 slices) with 1/4 cup chicken stock or water and 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine. Add 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Sauté 1/4 cup finely chopped celery and 1/4 cup finely chopped onions in 4 tablespoons butter. Add mushrooms and sauté. Sprinkle with 1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg. Add to other ingredients and mix well. Stuff loosely into cavity and truss.

For a 12 or 15 pound bird, increase ingredients three times.

Rose Float Benefit Dinner at Ranch Club December 29

Between Christmas and New Years, the big event in Palm Springs will be the Benefit Dinner which the Palm Springs Float Association is holding at the Ranch Club on the evening of December 29.

The $50-a-ticket dinner is expected to raise the money still needed for the Palm Springs float that will appear in the Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena on New Year's Day. At week's end the fund was still about $3000 short of its goal.

The dinner, which is open to the public, gives an opportunity to all Villagers who are interested to participate in sending Palm Springs' first float to join its sister cities in the fabulous floral parade that attracts national and international interest. It culminates months of work on the part of the Float Association which is headed by Mrs. Theresa Press, its indefatigable president. The dinner and evening of entertainment will also be a celebration of achievement of a goal that has not been easily reached.

Ranch Club manager Arthur Robinson said today that the Club will provide special holiday entertainment that evening.

Tickets for the dinner may be secured by calling Mrs. Press, the Chamber of Commerce, Jim Cavett, Sam Black, Hildy Crawford.

In announcing plans for the dinner, Mrs. Press made an urgent appeal for support from Villagers. "If you have been meaning to help send a float to Pasadena bearing the Palm Springs name, this is your last chance . . . and we need your help."

Beta Sigma Phi Holiday Party Is Gala One

"Merry Christmas to all!" shouted Santa Claus to members of Sigma Gamma Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Tuesday evening, and their annual Christmas party was on. Santa (Betty Lacy) scrambled under the tree for the presents and there were many happy surprises as each girl discovered who her secret sister had been for the year.

Movies of the Beta Sigma Phi float in the Desert Circus Parade were shown while the eggnogs were served. Then the guests trooped to the refreshment table to exclaim over the comical cake baked in the form of Santa Claus, from his perky red hat to his snow-white beard.

A sidelight of the evening was the fine each member had to pay if she expressed her sadness at losing member Frances Blondon, when her husband Rev. William Blondon, is transferred to San Pedro in February. The fine was levied as this should be a happy occasion for Fran and not a sad one. Nevertheless, a sizable sum was collected before the evening ended.

A hearty cheer of thanks was given to party co-chairmen Fayne Pritchett and Jane Dill, at whose home it was held on Camino Parocela, for the very successful and entertaining Christmas party.

Literature about Outer Space Discussed for Writers Guild

Books and writing and the part space travel is assuming in modern literature were topics of discussion Thursday evening, when the Writers Guild of the Desert Art Center met at the Art Gallery in The Plaza.

Author Mrs. Dana Howard was the special speaker for the evening, explaining the inspiration for several of her new books and outlining the most popular writing of today. She discussed space travel and some of the amazing features of the little understood outer space.

Those who came in tired from the Christmas rush were sitting

Howard spoke, and were soon convinced that, since the atomic boom, space travel has become the most popular subject for the writer of today. Mrs. Howard graciously answered many questions from the audience. The meeting was adjourned half an hour late because of the special interest in the discussion.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Alice Koenig, newly-elected president of the Guild and a popular new resident of Palm Springs. She is currently engaged in writing a book of humorous reminiscences.

Mrs. Vincent Leone is visiting with friends in the valley this week from her home in Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Leone left here last spring a very sick lady and it is good to see her well.

Mrs. Mary White from Okmulgee, Okla., is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Burns, this week and really seeing the desert and all points of interest.

Recent guests of Harry Oliver were his granddaughters from Pomona, Calif. They brought their riding horses along to enjoy real desert life.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bovee and her mother, Mrs. Alspack from Wenatchee, Wash., are here spending the winter near Bovee's brother, Walter Bovee.

Cathedral City Woman's Club Holds Christmas Party

CATHEDRAL CITY — Thirty members of the Cathedral City Woman's Club enjoyed a luncheon and Christmas party at the Pinon Pines mountain home of Mrs. Emil Greener. Mrs. Claude Yerkes presided in the absence of Mrs. Warner Moon, president. An attractively decorated banquet type table was set up on the veranda, affording a magnificent view of the pine trees so symbolic of the Holiday season. Mrs. Claude Cobb fried the chicken, assisted by the hostess, Mrs. Greener, and Misses Bill Hillery, Clara Tambling and James Wolseth.

THE TRADITIONAL trimmings for the festive affair were made by some of the other members.

THE TRADITIONAL trimmings for the festive affair were made by some of the other members. During the luncheon, Mrs. Olive Gearhardt was elected membership chairman, and it was asked that all past members will bring their status up to date and return to the fold before the campaign

GIFTS WERE exchanged and the afternoon was rounded out with bridge and canasta.

The next luncheon meeting will be held Jan. 7 at the Desert Lodge home of Mrs. James Wolseth. This will be a patio luncheon and there will be bridge and canasta for all who enjoy cards. Only members in good standing are eligible to attend these meetings.

PALM DESERT — A permit for a swimming pool for Al E. McEvers at 45-610 Shadow Mountain Drive helped boost this week's building permit total here to $4,302. The pool is valued at $3,000. A fence for Palm Desert Lodge at 74-527 Highway 111, valued at $150, and a carport for Dennis Simms at 73-361 San Benito Circle, valued at $1,152, were also included in the total.

Opening of New Space Launching Base Big Boost to California

And now California has a modern new range for firing missiles and outer space projectiles.

Formal inauguration of the use of Vandenberg Air Force base last week with the successful firing of the first intermediate missile from the coastal location to a point near the Hawaiian Islands was gratifying news to all Californians and residents of the western United States.

It is also significant to note that the newly opened ballistic range is the largest yet developed by American military and scientific divisions, and that it will be the principal training center for personnel and crews in all branches of government services.

From a strategic standpoint the location of the base is an excellent one, adding a great deal to the long range interception and defense system of western United States and covering almost the entire Pacific Ocean.

With long range missiles now capable of hitting a target in a matter of minutes at distances up to 6,000 miles or more, the new California base has a range from western Europe to the Orient, and from the North Pole to lower South America.

In addition to strategic military protection, the Vandenberg range will doubtless feature prominently in many future launchings of outer space projectiles and vehicles.

Up to now the Cape Canaveral in Florida has had a virtual monopoly in the news headlines as the site of the firing of almost all of the principal missiles.

Since most of the projectiles are manufactured, assembled and tested in California, the short haul to the firing range will simplify and speed operations, save time and money, and give California at least equal billing with Florida in the friendly traditional rivalry of the two States in attempting to outdo each other in matters of attracting the widest and most favorable attention.

As millions read, watch, see and hear news of the space race events at Vandenberg Base as recorded by the press, radio and television, the frequent mention of that glorious name California will be delightfully sweet to the ever growing millions of residents of our great Golden State.

'Peace' Is the Purpose

PARIS, FRANCE — Time is on the side of NATO, up to a point at least. In December last year your reporter visited the Supreme Headquarters of the 15-nation alliance at Versailles. The Russians then had just launched Sputnik. In retaliation, the Americans were launching President Eisenhower out of a hospital bed to spark the NATO heads of government meeting.

Your reporter can remember that five years ago NATO was paper mache, and 10 years ago when it was an embryo. Still further back, in the summer of 1945, just after V-E day, the same reporter was eating here in Paris at one of those assembly line mess halls, known then as "Willow Run."

AMONG MANY fellow officers was a stolid Russian in field boots whom we all joshingly called "Joe" after his master, Stalin. It's a good guess that Joe was the only officer present who could have foreseen a day when the positions of a hostile Germany and a friendly Russia would be exactly reversed in the Western Alliance.

But "peace" is the purpose here. Progress has been made toward peace or, to give it the military term, deterrence. Yesterday I talked with two of the top NATO chiefs, both of whom radiated the confidence of a garrison commander who has just inspected the most, the portulais, the archers in the turrets and finds everything tip-top.

A RUDDY OLD fighter, British General Sir Richard Gale, Viscount Montgomery's successor, felt that the Allies have been immensely strengthened since 1957 by the addition of nuclear weapons from the U.S. He saw a mounting potential of arms when West Germany, the industrial giant of Europe, makes the reluctant switch from Volkswagens and the like to tanks and planes.

General Gale, who commanded paratroops in World War II and served during the Palestine terrorism in 1946-47, speculated that the Russian Army, with its 175 divisions, might be thrashing around in a fit of change. The Russians have always used mass infantry attacks, but are apparently trying to modernize their tactics to suit the nuclear facts of ground fighting.

AS SPOKESMAN for air fighting, General Leon Johnson, once this reporter's wing commander in the U. S. 8th Air Force and a wearer of the Congressional Medal of Honor, felt that Russia, with all her acknowledged might in fighters, bombers and missiles, had nowhere to go in the Western Hemisphere.

Even if an attack on Europe should paralyze this continent, the retaliation from North America, Britain and outlying bases would be instant and overwhelming. And should the USA be assaulted from over the North Pole, the British and American heavy bombers from Britain, as well as a whole swarm of NA-

TO's atomically-armed aircraft would cut loose at prearranged targets in East Europe and in Russia.

THUS, SO FAR as the best military thinkers can see, the peace of the Western front is reasonably secure.

This, if you will, is stalemate. It is exactly what the NATO planners intended to bring about. Yet even in military stalemate, even in defensive success, the lay of dynamics is at work. As NATO nears the end of its first decade, there are these forces in motion:

NATO, all conquering in its field of deterrence, is looking for new worlds to conquer. Already we keep a NATO ambassador in Paris, in addition to our Ambassador to France. Already the NATO council has become a global board of strategy.

INEVITABLY, IT surveys other world situations which might be favorably influenced by the use of NATO soldiers, sailors, airmen and missiles, otherwise standing idle. Already this is a "parliamentary" association of NATO which suggests, speaking bluntly, a super-government.

NATO or rather its armed forces under Supreme Commander Lauris Norstad, is possibly the most deliberative military power in creation. This is both good and bad. Since all 15-nation members must be consulted and must agree, the military planners and strategists dwell very thoughtfully upon their proposals. A plan to please everybody must be watertight, but often it is also water-logged with compromises and concessions.

FOR EXAMPLE, the 12 German divisions, long ago promised, are only eight in number, and these are admittedly papered. Who dares get rough with Germany? Also, four or more French divisions, supposedly holding the NATO line, are still in Algeria. Who will vote to read France a unity lecture?

Since 1954 the military chiefs have needed a general purpose fighter-bomber. When I was here last year there were plans; this year there are test planes, the Italian Fiat G-91's, powered with the British Orpheus turbojet engines. But is this the best possible aircraft? Or is it an aircraft to provide work for Italian plane makers? And whose turn is next to build a weapon?

THERE EXISTS an amiable conspiracy, which includes Americans, to play down the American part in NATO. It is, as I say, amiable and has the kindly purpose of making the smaller allies (who do very little) feel that they are doing a lot.

To illustrate: the Fiat G-91, mentioned above, is hailed in NATO press hand-outs as "the first internationally conceived air weapon system." Its conception is called a "utilization of the European inventive genius" which fortunately "coincided with the birth of a new U. S. approach to mutual aid: the Mutual Weapons Development Program."

Well — all right. But as this has breaks from the thicket, notice its markings. The Europeans have the "inventive genius," while the poor old Yanks are permitted to contribute "aid," alias dollars!

Still, NATO has survived its infancy. These are the problems of success and middle age.

 Thank you so much for mail. I am leaving for Palm Springs on Dec. 19 and will stop by the office to pay for it.

Vodka Gets Nod

LONDON (UP) — THE Communist Daily Worker today gave its readers some drink recipes for the Christmas holidays, and the Worker being what it is, there were no surprises. The choices: Vodka with vermouth, vodka and cointreau, vodka and apricot brandy, vodka and beer, vodka and dubonnet, and just plain vodka.

'Nobody Here But Us Peace-Loving Lambs'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Oh, me, Oh, my,
 A Monday piece.
 Just when I sought
 From work surcease.

Robert Burns (not the cigar manufacturer) once wrote something about the best laid plans of mice and men ganging up on glee, or something like that.

He was so right. Here I had plans all made for just four of these things this week and along came this Monday issue and then there were five, just like always.

WELL, ANYWAY, enough of this self-pity and let's get on with it.

First, you can keep your eyes on the road now and away from the rear vision mirror. It won't do you any good to watch for a traffic officer and step on it when you don't see one.

Because they can see you even if you can't see them.

FOR ALL YOU KNOW, you may be just a speck on a radar screen at any time, any place.

The police department's new radar unit is in operation and you might as well take it easy because you'll never know they're watching you until you hear the wail of a siren.

It should serve to make Palm Springs streets much safer even if you think it isn't quite the Christmas attitude.

WHEN JIMMY COOPER, Chamber of Commerce manager, asked the air force not to mess up our skies with wave, vapor trails, he started something.

The request drew lots of attention, even overseas.

Personally, I think the contrails are pretty. Lots better than the sky writers we used to have. Remember?

IN FACT the other morning, walking down Palm Canyon Drive, I thought the jet pilots were taking a leaf from the old sky-writers book.

There was a mess of contrails in the southern skies and, it may have been my imagination, but I thought one of the trails was taking the form of D A and waited to see if they were going to swear at us.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

This being the Christmas week. The tree is up. A scatter of sparkly fragments show where our good intentions slipped and fell. Packages are beginning to pile up—we can hardly keep from unwrapping just ONE; can you?

Made stern resolutions to keep this week's writing on a high and unseined level. Avoid violence and violence. Away with care and away with woe.

MY MIND SHALL be hung with holly and as high as mistletoe.

The type should be as crisp as this morning.

However, we cannot duck our responsibilities this Yuletide: Our Gal Sunday is in a terrible fix. Just awful.

WELL, I READ in the journals that Our Gal Sunday will be removed from the radio channels come the first of the year.

"Can a small-town girl find REAL happiness married to an English nobleman?"

Man, that program has been on my mind since my moppet was 6 years old. Every morning my child tuned in the soap operas, one by one.

OUR GAL SUNDAY comes right after "The Romance of Helen Trent." ("No oily aftertaste.")

For more years than I remember, Sunday has been married to Lord Henry.

She has gone through poison murder, libel — an ordinary small-town girl would not have tried to find happiness in such a bind. She would have hopped a freight and dug out of there.

Not Sunday. She dug in and never once hollered calf rope. The show must go on was the motto. And on and on and on and on.

ANYWAY, I TUNED in this drama the other morning. Because after all these years, I want to see how it all comes out.

Has to come out where she finds happiness. That is the way I figure it.

I want to see how the writer unravels that problem.

Our Gal Sunday works for Jello — "Twice the serving, twice the it, people."

"Eliminate the middlemen and overhead, sir! . . . Get the most out of your charity contributions! . . ."

EARL WILSON:

Christmas On Farm Best

NEW YORK — Donna Reed and I talked about Christmas down on the farm.

"It seems to me that at Christmas time we were usually broke," I said, speaking of life back on the 80 acres in Ohio.

"Always," nodded Donna, who grew up seven miles from Denison, Ia. — "way out in the country, as we used to say. 'But we had wonderful Christmases! I miss them terribly. I had 25 or 30 first cousins, and slews of aunts and uncles. We'd all get together and have huge stacks of food. The men always ate first."

Donna, minked and jeweled, living at one of the most expensive hotels in the world, star of her own ABC TV show, was happily reliving those depression-time Christmases.

"There wasn't enough room or enough chairs for everybody to sit down," she said. "I would be peeking around a corner of the kitchen wondering when I would eat. Last would come the poor mothers who cooked it."

"My dad sometimes would sell a load of corn to get money for Christmas," I recalled.

"He would come home with the wagon empty of corn but with some presents in it."

Donna nodded again. "We seemed to get things that weren't quite what we wanted simply because there wasn't enough money to go around. Nobody minded, though, because we were all in the same boat!"

"I remember once, though, when I was about 6 or 7, and I wanted and got a doll and a beautiful chair — a little rocker. . . ."

"Farmers had it hard then," she said, "and everybody was so discouraged that of the 90 in my class, I don't think there's more than one or two left around there."

One left is a brother who still farms, also a pretty young high school sister ("very special child, naturally") and her parents.

"My father's so married to that farm!" Donna exclaimed.

"He'll come and visit me in Beverly Hills. That's about all. He was there one winter and when the first of February came he began thinking about the crops. That lure of the soil got strong and in about two days he couldn't wait — he took off for Iowa."

Donna still knows about cows, and tractors, and work horses — and lots of other things, too, because when she entered Los Angeles City College, she worked at three jobs at the same time to pay her way through. . . . but was picked as beauty queen anyway and was on her way to an Oscar and to "the Donna Reed Show."

"And so I do come from a farm near a nice little town on a hill," Donna said. "A good place to begin life. . . ."

Earl's Pearl: "If ever a new Statue of Liberty is designed, it will be holding the bag instead of a torch." — Sunshine Magazine.

Wish I'd Said That: "The wife of a Broadway heel took the easy way out. She committed suicide." — Joey Adams.

Today's Best Laugh: Leo McCarey says he always knows when to quit drinking. It was five drinks back.

A friend (?) sent us a fish for Christmas and on the package there was a sticker saying, "If not delivered within five days — never mind". . . . That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

L-O-O-T For Debbie

HOLLYWOOD — Now that Debbie has filed for divorce, smoke signals from Eddie's camp spell out L-O-O-T for Miss Reynolds — not that cool, crazy $1,000,000 they've been rumormongering Tinseltown but something in the neighborhood of $250,000 plus the couple's spacious, two-story $300,000 English — brick abode in Beverly Hills.

And, speaking of neighborhoods, that's a nice one! There's not a photo left in that home, incidentally, nor any other single solitary memento of Fisher — just his two children and their mother.

I HAVEN'T BEEN on this wave length for a month of Sundays. I wish my daughter was home from school. She knows the whole plot, going back to the year 1948.

"He only associated with her because she defended him in that perjury charge." (Oh, so that was it.) "It took courage to do what he did?" (What did he do, you fathead?)

"No, Chris," said Sunday, "it was that moment he stopped seeing Claire as his lawyer and saw her as she really is — a vital, attractive woman!"

(That's telling them!)

WELL, HERE IT is Christmas. And Sunday, as far from happiness with the English nobleman as she was ten years ago. Trouble, trouble, trouble.

What's this? "Ruth King must never know that Claire Reynolds is REALLY in love with Howard King. She's devoted to her husband. And with her weak heart, it might kill her."

I tell you, I do not see how the writer is to get off the hook by the first of the year. Even if he puts in twice the serving and twice the fun.

THE PROGRAM then wound up the day: "Lord Henry is walking into a trap!"

As I say, I intended to keep the Christmas week on a jolly level. But I've GOT to find out how this thing comes out. Only two more shopping days for Sunday to find happiness. Stay with it, people.

MONITORED AT Metro: "She landed a bit part at Paramount and another bit part at Fox, that's all — she's a two-bit actress!"

John Wayne, Eleanor Parker, Carolyn Jones, Bill Holden, Sam Goldwyn, Sammy Davis Jr., Thelma Ritter, Keenan Wynn, Pearl Bailey, Sidney Poitier, Diahann Carroll, Connie Towers and Dorothy Dandridge were included in the all-star assemblage attending Frank Capra's joint birthday party for Frank Sinatra and his "Hole in the Head" co-star, Edward G. Robinson, on the Goldwyn lot.

BORN ON the same day but in different years (Frankie admitted he's 42 but Eddie wasn't talking, see, tough guy?), they play brothers in the picture. I birthday — gifted The Thin One with a bottle of wheat germ oil and art-expert Eddie went home with time to stick around to see what other loot they got.

Jack Benny emceed the entertainment end of it, with Capra, Davis, Dean Martin and Tony Curtis singing Sammy Cahn's unprintable-for-a-family-newspaper parodies of such songs as "The Object of My Affection," "The Street Where You Live" and "How About You?"

Said Benny: "I'm glad to be here acting as master of ceremonies at a party for Frank Sinatra because he has always been very nice to me — he has never punched me in the nose or threatened to run over me with a cab"

CHANNEL CHATTER — Remember You Read it HERE First: Much against her will, and only because the ratings of The George Burns Show have dropped, Gracie Allen will emerge from retirement to re-emerge with her husband as a regular on the show — to be retitled The Burns AND Allen Show!

Lana wouldn't leave town while Cheryl Crane is still a ward of her grandma and Lana's ma, by court order — and especially at Christmastime. Meaning Bob Hope's Yuletide junket to Spain and other overseas spots will be Turnerless. As for me, it'll be a Hopeless Christmas for the first time in three years. Thanks for the invitation, Bob, but I couldn't clear the decks-of-holly, ol' Dad, in time to make the Spain scene this year. But how about a rain-in-Spain-check for next year

JUDY GARLAND insists on at least three-to-six months of preparations for her "Born in a Trunk" spec, not just the five weeks offered by CBS-TV. Besides, Miss Garland, trading where Maria Meneghini Callas doesn't, will play the nation's three top opera Wouses: New York Metropolitan (she'll be the last performer to play the famous old place before it's torn down), Chicago Civic Opera and San Francisco Opera.

You gotta have cheese to go with ham — so Gene Barry's Bat Masterson sponsors Christmas-gifted Barry's better-half, Betty, with solid gold earrings shaped like Kraft Cheddar wedges.

IF YOU DON'T blink, you'll see, buried deep in the screen credits of Cecil B. DeMille's "The Buccaneer," an actor named Ty Hungerford. Matter of fact, this Hungerford "unknown" shows up in 87th place, at the very bottom of the seemingly endlessly unrolling list of actors! Since the picture was canned, however, an actor named Clint Walker scrambled the Warner-TV Cheyenne series.

And that bottom-of-the-pile-at-Paramount thespian named Hungerford is now top-of-the-list at the Warner Studio as Walker's replacement, with a new name: Ty Hardin. And that's show-biz.

DON DEFORE'S NEW family situation teleseries, For the Love of Mike, has a kicker in the title. Don's the star, true, but the "Mike" of the title is that very feminine, very sweet-sixteenish Darlene Gillespie, formerly a regular member of Walt Disney's Mouseketeers, now one of TV's top star potentials (chalk THIS on your read-it-here-first calendar too).

What with making love to David Niven and Gig Young on Metro's "Ask Any Girl" set all day and rehearsing for a ride on Dinah Shore's Chevy charabane all night, Shirley MacLaine would up flat on her nervous exhaustion at St. Joseph's Hospital.

TV Tidbit: "And NOW for the news that happened during the commercial!"

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if the matrix A is stable. The second part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if the matrix A is not stable. 'His Will Be Done' Is Usual Greeting

By MARGUERITE DAVIS
United Press International
CHICAGO — (UP) — "God's will be done."

These are the words, not "Merry Christmas," heard most often this holiday season in the Our Lady of the Angeles Parish, where 80 children and three nuns perished in a parochial school fire Dec. 1.

PARENTS NOW take what comfort they can from their church's condolence, "It was God's will." Trademen say that is what they hear most often when the grief-stricken parents discuss the fire.

This reporter spent a day in the West Side community which still mourns its dead, and never once heard a Christmas greeting.

A little shop is doing a comparatively brisk business in "thank you" cards, but there is not much demand for Christmas tinsel.

MOTHERS WHOSE children never again will come home from school like to stop in at the shop. They inquire about the proprietor's son, critically hurt in the fire, and hear the report, "still critical." They choose a card or two at the section devoted to "thank you for your sympathy" messages, and then leave.

Other years, merchants have decorated the streets with holiday streamers, but not now.

IT WAS EASY to find the manager of the ten cent store in the Our Lady of the Angeles Parish. Business dropped for the first time this year the week of the fire, he said, and never has recovered.

The record player in a neighborhood tavern is mostly silent. The proprietor said business has dropped from $80 a day to $5 or $10, "if I'm lucky."

STREAMERS OF black and purple frame the American Legion Alamo Post No. 885. Two of the post's three Christmas parties have been cancelled, the third scheduled only because it also is a benefit for the poor.

Masses formerly held in the school chapel have been transferred to the neighborhood movie theater. The manager, of the Lutheran faith, is on hand each Sunday morning in time to open the theater for the 8:15 o'clock Mass.

Employees remembered the children more by face than name.

"THAT PRETTY little girl I scolded for running," the candy counter concessionaire said, her eyes bright with tears. "She's never come back."

The ticket seller recalled how she watched terrified mothers race past the theater toward the burning school.

"I pray that no one will be bitter," she said.

If there is bitterness, it is not apparent.

"It was God's will."

Lions, Kiwanis

To Meet Tuesday

Palm Springs Lions Club and Kiwanis Club will meet in joint session tomorrow in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi.

Dr. Ed Smith will present a film on the Olympics.

Next week, Rotary and Lions Clubs will hold a joint meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 31.

Monica Circle

To Carol Tonight

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Members of the Monica Circle of the Methodist Church will tour Desert Hot Springs Monday night to sing Christmas carols for shut-ins.

The caroling tour begins at 7 p.m., and anyone wishing to be visited by the carolers may call Glory Munday at FA 9-3271.

An estimated 647,675,000 gallons of ice cream is consumed annually in the United States.

Dave Beck Trial

Reopens Today

After Recess

TACOMA, Wash. — (UP) — The Dave Beck income tax evasion trial was scheduled to reopen today for three days of proceedings before a Christmas holidays recess.

Frank Brewster, president of the Joint Council 28 of the Teamsters Union, was to take the stand and continue testimony interrupted by a recess Friday which was brought about when Beck became ill.

Federal Judge George H. Boldt called the recess after a physician examined the former teamster president and found him to be running a slight fever. Beck placed himself in the care of his physician, Dr. Alexander Grinstein, Seattle.

Beck is being tried on charges he evaded $240,000 in income taxes for the years 1950 through 1953.

PALM SPRINGS IS featured in one of 13 water color paintings in United Air Lines' calendar for 1959. The artistic interpretations of points along the airline's 14,000-mile system are painted exclusively for United by Millard Sheets, creator of the artwork for four previous company calendars. In addition to his water color achievements, Sheets is noted as a muralist, architectural designer, movie art director and lecturer.

Mobile Homes

By BETTY SCHROEDER

Sun Town Deluxe

Christmas and New Year plans are filling the days. Many colorful lights add to the beauty of Sun Town. The Morrow's Santa at the entrance of the park traditionally is leaving his gifts atop their mobile home. Henry Miller's mosaic addition is outstanding in addition to the colored lights and festive holiday colors and lights which help make Suntown almost as bright in the night as the daytime.

THE CHRISTMAS party was held Dec. 20 here in the decorative hall. A group of carolers went about the park singing the wonderful news of the birth of Jesus. Up on their return there was music, dancing, games and fun. Refreshments were served.

On Dec. 24, a Children's Christmas Party is planned. At 6:30 Christmas Eve all of the children in the park are invited, which includes visiting grandchildren. There will be carols, games, surprises and refreshments served also at this party.

ON DEC. 25 A joyous Christmas dinner is planned. This will be similar to the Thanksgiving dinner where so many enjoyed the good food and good companionship of their friends and neighbors.

The Sun Town New Year's Eve Party will be held in the Constellation Room on Dec. 31. Residents are eagerly looking forward to joining Dave and Alice Cromwell, managers and hosts of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stettler will be having an especially happy Christmas this year. Their new and extremely outstanding tent-like just arrived and is a very wonderful Christmas present arriving as it has just before the exciting week. Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Campbell, their neighbors, are also expecting their ten wide any day now as a Christmas "special."

Ramon

Outstanding in its beauty, delightful in its motif, the Ramon Clubhouse — decorated by John David Purviance — is the delight of all residents here in the park. Truly the artist's hand has transformed the building to a painting-like setting.

Coffee hours are still being enjoyed here every Friday afternoon. Hostesses recently have been Rilla Roberts, Julie Stephens, Lone Huffman and Del Tessler.

THE WEDNESDAY evening square dance parties, with Lee Mathis calling, have been very successful and a great deal of fun for all who attend.

The following ladies have served the different nights since the beginning of the party-cake evenings: Pat Polich, Erna Cox, Pearl Vanderbeken, Esther Allen, Marie Brummer, Julius Boshard, Kay Bourcier, Florence Combs, Hazel Day, Clara Ford, Maudie Frost, Dottie Clark, Marjorie Furrer, Addie Giles, Betty Grew, Dorothea Gugich, Tina Halstead, Lu Hall, Marie Kennedy, Vivian Shapiro, Iva Lackey and Mabel Wentworth Mac McKesson is the volunteer Wednesday evening coffee maker.

THE SEMI-MONTHLY meeting of the Ramon Trailer Park Camera Club with Walter Chester-man presiding was held in the recreation hall. A very entertaining travelogue of colored slides on Palm Springs and vicinity was given by Hazel Tripp.

Colored slides were then submitted by the members and were judged by D. W. Grant. Slides made by Jeanne Smith, Mrs. Chester Madison, Marguerite Gregory, Jen Chesterman, P. E. Brookway, M. C. Gilmore, Joe Robertson and Ray Stevens were chosen to be entered in the competition of Wind and Sun Council of Camera Clubs.

RAMON SHUFFLEBOARD tournament winners recently have been Stan McClelland, Earl Walker, A. C. Currie, Lee Hammer, Jane Ballenger and George Schlegel.

The Bike and Hike Club here have had some extra fun lately. Led by Jim Ford they have been to Deep Well area, Uncle John's Pancake House for a breakfast ride, and riding in formation on the nearby Polo Grounds.

Rancho Trailer Park

This week at Rancho the benefit card party for the Angel View Hospital was enjoyed by a large number of ladies of this community-minded park. The hall, with its festive Christmas decorations and large, beautiful tree, provided by J. L. Dexter, was a particularly fitting setting for this gesture of helping the children of the hospital during this Christmas season.

The fashion show is still the topic of conversation as it was so expertly handled. It was a perfect example of fun and beauty. The ladies provided the beauty, the men the fun.

THE MODELS were Marge Lutz, Gladys Snyder, Clover Mauldin, Nellie Wilson, Jeanette Stork, Nina Terrill, Bea Dearth, Ninetta Mason, Billie Martel and Lillian Shimmim.

Male "models" were Bill Mauldin, Jim Bayley, Roy Rogers, Glen Dearth and Ray Sipple. Their square dance partners were Ed Mason, Fred Shimmim, Ed Potter and Ted Martel. A very smart hat modeling act was put on by Rosemond Johnsons. Models were Bill Mauldin, Fred Glen, Earl Wakeman and Tom Gow. Designers were Gene Reynolds, Fred Clement and Paul Paine.

WITH MRS. JANE Hull providing the music, Mrs. Lou Hull as emcee, and with Lillian Shimmim organizing and managing the modeling, this fashion show was outstanding. Kathy O'Neill, TV starlet, also contributed, and Christine Weatherholt opened with a solo.

Mrs. Nancy Ames, mother of Eunice Beal, the very busy receptionist of Rancho, had a very exciting 80th birthday this month. Ruth Marcus baked her a "special" cake and open house was held for all their friends and neighbors.

The new ten wide home of Mrs. Gladys Embree has been the joyous greeting place of her many friends. Mrs. Gladys Embree is here from Santa Barbara and Seattle. Mrs. Zettie Colter, also of Seattle, is spending the winter with Mrs. Embree.

Another birthday party was held by the Earl Sipples recently. Eighteen guests attended the dinner party at which turkey was served. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Sipple's mother, Mrs. Martha Painter.

Mysterious Mink Disease

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah — (UP) — A mysterious disease has been killing off a number of minks on Idaho and Utah fur farms recently.

Dr. Austin E. Larsen, veterinarian for the Fur Breeders Agricultural Co-operative, says there's no immediate cause for alarm. There are still plenty of minks left. But bacteriologists are trying to find out what's wrong.

Pee Wee Too Nice For Job

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
NEW YORK — (UPI) — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:

Leo Durocher took a lot of raps a few years back for his printed philosophy that "nice guys finish last" yet this same feeling by Pee Wee Reese, one of the nicest guys ever to wear cleats, is what kept him from wanting to be a manager.

Reese, who has stepped off the playing field to be a coach for Los Angeles, could have had the managerial spot with the Dodgers. But Pee Wee was smart enough to know that a winning manager has to get tough with his players from time to time—and realistic enough to know he just couldn't do it. . . . He didn't want to be one of the nice guys to finish last. . . .

IN THESE DAYS when professional bowlers are making big money, Steve Nagy recalls with a chuckle that when his team captured the Cleveland city championship 25 years ago each man won $2.

"They gave us a nice watch job, too," he chuckles. "Well, I went out and bought a dollar watch so I could wear the job. The rest of the team kidded me so much that I heaved the watch up against the wall. . . . In other words, medals and such are fine, but no substitute for cold cash. . . ."

Four new "super" country clubs may set a trend in "commercial" country club development, the National Golf Foundation reports. These mammoth clubs, with memberships ranging from 1,700 to 5,000 offer private quality club house, golf and other recreational facilities on a volume basis with low-cost membership and dues.

INDIAN SPRING, MD., has 1,700 members, two 18-hole courses, three swimming pools and a driving range. Atacosta, Houston, Tex., CC, has 4,000 members. Dallas has two super clubs, River Lake with 2,300 members and Brookhaven with 2,600 members, three 18-hole courses, three swimming pools and two clubhouses. . . . The question is, how do you find the other members of your foursome?

West Virginia's all-opponent football team lists three men from Oklahoma and two from Syracuse, which meets Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. But the Mountaineers gave honorable mention to four Syracuse players and only two Oklahomans. . . . which would seem to figure out that nobody should sell Syracuse too short on Jan. 1. . . .

ADOLPH RUPP, the baron of Kentucky, is college basketball's winningest coach with an 852 average on 585 wins and 102 losses over 28 years. Ed Diddle of Western Kentucky has won the most games, 679 over 36 years, with 238 losses for a .743 percentage. . . . which takes in a lot of bounces. . . .

So you're a good bowler? Well, keep an eye on the ladies. Out in Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Alys Price rolled 224-238-246 — 708. If you think that's an isolated case Julia Ward bowled 238-209-257—704 on the same night Eleanor Fisher rolled a 685 series. . . . Do don't be condescending to the gals.

Classes in Jujitsu Now Offered to Villagers

ums for both men and women. In learning judo, Inouye teaches the pupil first how to fall, and then goes through some of the basic elements of judo. Inouye has been "a professional" in judo for 18 years, and holds the coveted "first degree black," the highest award in the art of jujitsu. It is the practice of a judo expert to display his degree in the color of belt he wears.

ANOTHER FIRST for Wally Kimberly's Health Club will be the first local presentation of a "Mr. Palm Springs Show," in which a local man will be chosen as having the best physique. The show will be held sometime late in March. Villagers who take judo, will be given an opportunity to contest in jujitsu shows over the country, as soon as they are experienced enough. Indians in Cage Tourney Friday

To Meet Needles In First

Christmas vacation isn't all vacation for Coach Jim Workman's Indian basketball team.

With the Banning Block B holiday basketball tournament coming up this weekend, the Tribe squad has been busy polishing up its attack and defense on the high school gymnasium floor.

Palm Springs High drew Needles High as first opponents in the tournament and meet it at 1:30 p.m. Friday in the Banning High gym.

THE TOURNAMENT is slated to run four days, December 26, 27, 29 and 30.

Sixteen schools have entered the event including all eight Riverside County League schools and eight from other leagues in the same classification as the RCL.

Winners of the tournament and top players will receive awards at the conclusion of play.

COUNTY LEAGUE schools entered are Palm Springs, Banning, Beaumont, Coachella, Hemet, San Jacinto, Perris and Elsinore.

Others in the event are San Diego, Needles, Holtville, Brawley, Twentynine Palms, Tustin, St. Francis of La Canada and Pomona Catholic.

THE INDIANS have a 1-2 record to date, having lost twice to Colton, Citrus Belt League champions, and having won one practice game from Imperial High.

Following the Banning tournament drills will be resumed for the Riverside County League season which is scheduled to get under way January 9.

McKay, Olmeda To Start Finals Against Aussies

BRISBANE, Australia (UPI)—Barry McKay of Dayton, Ohio, and Alex Olmedo of Los Angeles are expected today to draw the all-important opening singles assignments when the United States attempts to end Australia's three-year hold on the Davis Cup.

McKay, hero of a losing cause last year, apparently earned another chance at the Australians by his victory over Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli Sunday, while Olmedo definitely earned his assignment by his brilliant showings in his opening singles match as well as in the doubles.

Perry Jones, non-playing captain of the U. S. team, has a week to make a final decision, but it is expected that he will choose to hold Hamilton Richardson of Arlington, Va., for service with Olmedo in the doubles competition. The challenge round of the famous tennis tournament will be held here Dec. 29-31.

Eldorado Polo Team Defeats Pomonans 9-8

Eldorado Polo Club Sunday broke into the winner's circle when they defeated a fast Pomona Red Diamonds quartet 9 to 8 at Eldorado Fields.

The Pomonans, rated among the best on the coast, went down to defeat in a thrilling battle.

Eldorado poloists are captained by Will Tevis, long a polo star in the nation. Ted Pierce, another top polo figure, led the Red Diamonds.

Harry Wills of Heavy Fame, Taken by Death

NEW YORK (UPI)—Harry Wills, heavyweight boxer who was known as the "Brown Panther," is dead today. Hospitalized two weeks ago, he succumbed last night at the Jewish Memorial Hospital. He was 66.

Wills, in his ring career which started in 1911, fought more than 100 bouts before he retired in 1932. He was in the real estate business until his death.

Officer Refuses to Cite Speeding Motorist

Palm Desert, Dec. 20—Frederick T. Clearwater, 230 Avenida Suena, apparently in a fit of enthusiasm, drove his family 85 miles per hour to show them the beautiful new El Dorado Palms Estates, bordering Indian Wells Golf Course. The arresting officer offered two valid reasons for his refusal to cite Clearwater: "First, I've seen El Dorado Palms Estates and well understand his enthusiasm. Secondly, Clearwater is my brother-in-law." Remember, you don't need influence to see beautiful El Dorado Palms. Simply call your realtor and drive over. Slowly, of course.—ADV.

PETE DAWKINS AWARDED RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

SWATHMORE, Pa. (UPI)—Pete Dawkins, Army's brilliant athlete, student and leader, yesterday won a new laurel when he was named as one of 32 Rhodes Scholars.

The 20-year-old Army halfback had previously been awarded the Maxwell Trophy and the Heisman Award in addition to being named on virtually every All America team.

Dawkins will take two years of instruction in the field of his choice at Oxford University, in England, under the arrangement announced yesterday by Dr. Courtney Smith, president of Swarthmore College and American secretary for the awards.

Dawkins, who conquered polio as a child, is considered one of the best athletes in the history of the Military Academy.

Round Table Parades at Anita Opening Day

"Horse of the Year" Round Table, the millionaire Thoroughbred that has earned more money than any other race horse, will be paraded between races as part of Santa Anita's opening-day program Friday.

Owner T. M. Kerr and Trainer Bill Molter have approved the special arrangements to have Round Table on the track, following the third race, so that turf fans can see the handicap champion for the first time since he set a new all-time earnings record of $1,336,364.

JOCKEY BILL SHOEMAKER, his regular rider, will be mounted on Round Table during the parade in front of the Santa Anita club house and giant grandstand.

The special feature of Round Table's appearance will share feature billing on opening day with the running of the $20,000-added Palos Verdes Handicap at six furlongs.

Round Table was the stakes hero of last winter's Santa Anita season, setting a record for the Arcadia track by winning five successive stakes—four of them under high weight of 130 pounds.

THE PROBABLE first start of 1959 for Round Table will be on Saturday, Jan. 3, in the $50,000-added San Carlos Handicap at seven furlongs.

Round Table tops a list of 95 nominations for the 22nd running of the $145,000-guaranteed handicapped next Feb. 28, and has been assigned top weight of 132.

Western Jaycee Gridders Down East by 33 to 14

STOCKTON (UPI)—The West, sparked by the brilliant running of Bob Cabanog of Hartnell College, roared past the East, 33-14, in the third annual National Junior College All America game.

Only 2,106 spectators were on hand in Pacific Memorial Stadium to watch Cabanog's trickery amaze the East team. Two other West touchdowns were scored by Charles Fuller of Vallejo JC.

Charles Robertson of Holmes JC at Goodman, Texas, and Gerald Ripnowski of Del Mar College at Corpus Christi, scored the two East touchdowns.

Small College Title Won by Oklahomans

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI)—Northeastern Oklahoma won the N.A.I.A. football championship Saturday with a 19-13 victory over Arizona State in the Holiday Bowl.

The game was for the mythical "small college" gridiron championship of the U. S.

Giants Defeat Browns 10-0 In Fast Game

New York Defense Unit Stymies All Cleveland Efforts

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Giants are now waiting for the Baltimore Colts and the National Football League championship next Sunday as result of their 10-0 win over the Cleveland Browns Sunday.

Sparked by Charlie Conery on offense and a fired-up defensive unit, the Giants contained the Browns throughout 60 minutes of bruising football in Yankee Stadium before a sell-out crowd.

CONERLY, grey haired at 38, scored the game's only touchdown on a razzle-dazzle play and Pat Summerall, who put the Giants in the play-off with a 49-yard field goal, added three more yesterday to make it 10-0.

But the Giant defensive unit was hot Sunday although the temperature was not.

They held the leading ground gainer of the NFL, Jim Brown to a net gain of eight yards in seven attempts.

THE GIANTS took the edge in all statistics in the game which was played in 30 degree weather on a field that was as hard as concrete.

Cleveland, touted for its speed on a fast field, just couldn't get rolling yesterday.
